Opening

At the time of the cold winter wind blowing a hint of the arrival very soon of Santa Claus and his reindeer, the Flying Angels were welcomed into the teepee of Crafty Kitten and Hunting Dog. The fifth meeting of this third season of the Flying Angels was kicked off when Crafty Kitten gave 12 pounding beats of the tribal tom-tom.

The tribe then formed the unbroken circle and chanted the aims, pledge, and slogan led by our fearless Chief, Rising Moon.

Wampum Earning:

All princesses clearly and loudly introduced themselves and the big braves. Then each princess announced her efforts that earned wampum for the tribe. Next, Black Hawk read the minutes from the November 8th Pow-Wow to the very attentive tribe.

Feather Earning:

Our first service project toward earning our third year feathers took place on Sunday, December 18th at the Carolina House. Led by Little Acorn and Tall Oak, we sang Christmas carols and handed out fruit to the seniors who live there. They in turn gave us some nutritious candy. Our favorite song was Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer, to which we know all of the words quite well including some extra ones we like to add!

Meeting Activities:

- ❖ Craft The princesses made colored bead Christmas ornaments.
- ❖ Snack Crafty Kitten and Hunting Dog provided nutritious refreshments for all of the princesses and braves to enjoy.
- ❖ Game/song Purring Cat and Barking Dog led the Princesses in a song called "My Father Owns a Grocery Store", that they wrote!
- ❖ Story No story was told at this meeting.
- ❖ Trick Rainbow Pony and Soaring Eagle showed all of the Princesses an amazing trick where they add and take away beads from piles of them and then tell how many are in each pile.
- ❖ Discussions Service project coming up on December 18th.

Closing:

All Flying Angels then stood in a circle and the closing prayer was led by the mighty Chief, Rising Moon. The Flying Angels then fluttered away into the night until the next Pow-Wow to be held at the Tee-Pee of Purring Cat and Barking Dog on Tuesday, January 17th.

So went the fifth meeting of the Flying Angels as reported by Black Hawk, Tallykeeper.
